The Springboro Division of Police works in partnership with the community to provide protection and security for its citizens. The Police Division exists to protect people and property, to foster a community spirit and adherence to the law, to provide rapid response to citizens' needs for service, and to provide a variety of emergency services.

Police Chief—Chief Executive Officer

The Police Chief is responsible for planning, organizing, operations analysis, community relations and public affairs, development of operation policies and procedures, publishing enforcement and training bulletins, and the development of short and long range operations.

Springboro Division of Police is organized into three components:

Administrative Section:

The Administrative Section consists of the following functions:

- Policy Research and Development
- Personnel Training
- Equipment Management
- Facility Management
- Payroll
- Recruitment and Hiring Processes

Operations Section:

The Operations Section consists of the following functions:

- Patrol
- Crime Prevention
- Property Management
- Criminal Investigations

Communications/Records Section:

The Communications/Records Section consists of the following functions:

- Reception of non-emergency calls for service
- Maintenance and control of all police reports and records
- Civilian fingerprinting
- Collection and reporting of crime statistics

Administrative Section

The Administrative Section Consists of:

- Lieutenant

The function of the Administrative Section include the following:

Policy Research and Development

This function entails researching department policies and procedures, as well as policy development, and forwarding recommendations to the Chief of Police.

Equipment/Facility Management

This function entails general facility maintenance and upkeep. The Administrative Lieutenant also oversees the Temporary Holding Facility, its operations, regular inspections, and compliance with state regulations.

Personnel Training

This function is to provide department personnel with adequate and proper training whether it is provided at this department or at an outside agency.

Operations Section

The Operations Section Consists of:

- Lieutenant
- Sergeants
- Investigators
- Patrol Officers

The function of the Operations Section include the following:

Patrol

The patrol function is responsible for the protection of life, property, and the prevention of crime and the apprehension of offenders through a combination of random and direction patrol by uniformed police officers in marked police vehicles. The patrol force is responsible to preserve the public peace, respond to calls for service, render assistance to persons when necessary, and conduct preliminary and follow-up investigations on reported offenses.

Crime Prevention

The crime prevention function provides crime prevention programs to the citizens of the community. The Crime Prevention Officer is also involved in public relations for the department. He is sometimes responsible for assisting the community with block parties, arranging for tours of the building for scout troops, etc. He shall keep up to date on crime patterns within the city and identify problem areas within the community. He will then make recommendations to reduce those areas that have been identified.

Operations Section

Property Management

The property management function is responsible for the maintenance, storage, return, and destruction of found and seized property.

Criminal Investigations

The criminal investigations function is responsible for the control of the investigations of most felonies and high profile cases. The Criminal Investigations Unit is also responsible for the overseeing of all the criminal investigations within the police department from arrest to prosecution.

Communications/Records Section

The Communications/Records Section consists of:

- Office Manager
- Customer Service Managers/Deputy Clerks of Court

The Communications/Records Section, under the supervision of the Office Manager, is responsible for the reception of non-emergency calls for service and the transferring or relaying of those calls to the Warren County Communications Center for dispatch and CAD (Computer Aided Dispatch) entry. It is responsible for receiving payments and typing charges for presentment in Springboro Mayor's Court when the Clerk of Court's office is closed. It is responsible for the maintenance and control of all police reports and for performing receptionist clerk/typist duties. The Warren County Communications Center handles the primary responsibility of radio dispatching for road patrol units and handles all 911 calls for the city.

In 2009 the Warren County Communications Center dispatched 18,215 calls for service compared to 14,470 in 2008.
